Re: Wilson et al v. Lee Hecht
Harrison, Barbara Barna, et al
C.U. No. 05-30067. MAP

Dear Tom,

A copy of your recent July 1, 2005 letter to plaintiff pro se is attached. Plaintiff presumes your letter formally responds to plaintiff's invitation for settlement.

Defendants' settlement offer of a net payment of $3,500 (three thousand five hundred dollars) dated July 1, 2005 is unchanged from defendants' previous settlement overtures.

Plaintiff interprets Defendants' July 1, 2005 settlement offer as insulting behavior, obstinate behavior & obstructionist behavior. Sadly, Defendant's evidence no good faith.

- 1 of 2 -

plaintiff therefore records defendant's Settlement offer dated July 1, 2005
as "NO".

By copy of this letter, plaintiff pro se respectfully requests copy of this letter & all attachments
to be formally entered into the case
record, by the clerk of the Court.

Should the clerk of the Court require plaintiff pro se to submit a formal motion for an order to show cause
as to why the letter & attachments
should not so enlarge the record,
then plaintiff pro se will dutifully comply.

plaintiff pro se awaits the clerk's instructions. Thank you.

Have a nice day,

signed Bruce Wilson

Re: Wilson et al. v. Lee Hecht Harrison et al.
Civil Action No. 05-30067-MAP

Dear Mr. Wilson:

This Firm is counsel to Lee Hecht Harrison, Paul O'Donnell, and Barbara Barra. Thank you for your letter dated June 28, 2005, in which you express interest in exploring settlement of this matter. Please be advised that Lee Hecht Harrison is willing to provide you with a net payment of Three Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($3,500) to resolve this case in its entirety. Of course, such payment would be contingent on your withdrawal of the pending action and execution of a mutually-agreeable settlement agreement which would include a release of claims.

If this offer is acceptable, please advise me in writing. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

JACKSON LEWIS LLP
